

Music & Art

March - April 2010

Russian Café-Gallery Cossachok

10 King Street, Merchant City, Glasgow G1 5QP
tel 0141 553 0733

March 2010 @ Café Cossachok

07/03 Sun - YURODNY

Dublin based group, Yurodny, make their debut in Café Cossachok. Described by the Irish Times as "triumphant...vibrant and irresistible" and received at festivals around the world to great critical acclaim, the group mix virtuosic improvisational abilities with highly detailed arrangements of traditional Balkan material, leaving no stone unturned on their voyage around the musical world. 9:00pm Tickets £6.00

14/03 Sun - LEV AND FRIENDS

Lev Atlas (violin) will be joined by special guests for an eclectic programme of Russian, Armenian, Hungarian, Gypsy and Jazz favourites. 9:00pm Tickets £6.00

21/03 Sun - THE POWER OF THE ACCORDION

Georgie Gajjic plays a selection of Russian, Hungarian and other eastern European favourites, exploring the full musical depth of the accordion. 9:00pm Tickets £6.00

28/03 Sun - NIGEL CLARK AND CHRIS CLARK

Scotland's most eminent jazz guitarist and composer, Nigel Clark joins forces with his cousin, Chris, himself an acclaimed guitarist and vocalist for a programme of traditional jazz standards and self composed work. 9:00pm Tickets £6.00

April 2010 @ Café Cossachok

04/04 Sun - GEORGIE GAJJIC

Georgie Gajjic (accordion) explores the full musical depth of the accordion through a selection of Eastern European popular melodies. 9:00pm Tickets £6.00

11/04 Sun - THAT SWING THING

An evening of great jazz standards and swing classics with the John Colrain Trio. 9:00pm Tickets £6.00

18/04 Sun - LEV AND FRIENDS

Lev Atlas (violin) and his special guests present a mixed programme of relaxing music from jazz standards to light operatic favourites. 9:00pm Tickets £6.00

25/04 Sun - LEV AND NIGEL

Scotland's most eminent jazz guitarist and composer, Nigel Clark will join forces with violinist Lev Atlas for an evening of Russian, Hungarian, Gypsy and Jazz favourites. 9:00pm Tickets £6.00

Exhibitions @ Gallery Cossachok

4th March - 31st March
'MUSIC AND IMAGES'

Music and art go hand in hand and this exhibition features Russian, Armenian, Ukrainian, Georgian. American, French and local artists.

1st April - 4th May
'USSR: OUR PERSPECTIVES THEN AND NOW'

A photographic exhibition of journeys made through Russia and the former USSR from 1975 until the present day, exploring the people, architecture and culture of this multi-faceted, everchanging region.

Russian Café-Gallery Cossachok
10 King Street, Merchant City, Glasgow G1 5QP
tel 0141 553 0733
cossachok@yahoo.com      www.cossachok.com